Julie Kampf Named to PharmaVOICE 100

ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, NJ: Julie Kampf, CEO and President of the executive talent solutions firm JBK Associates International, has been named to the 2013 PharmaVOICE 100, an annual list published by PharmaVOICE magazine to recognize individuals for inspiring leadership and positive contributions to the life-sciences industry.

Since launching JBK 10 years ago, Kampf has become a nationally recognized advocate for workforce diversity and has built her organization to include three successful talent management enterprises that together offer a full spectrum of services across industries. As part of its PharmaVOICE 100 coverage, PharmaVOICE magazine cites her for driving diversity in the life sciences industry as well as for her business success.

“It’s an honor to contribute to the life sciences industry and to be recognized by colleagues as one of the PharmaVOICE 100,” says Kampf. “We view ourselves as a management consulting firm for anything related to talent, and we are committed to making sure that clients in this industry and beyond have the diverse talent needed for innovation.”

PharmaVOICE 100 honorees are nominated by thousands of PharmaVOICE readers throughout the year and are selected based on essays describing how they have inspired or motivated their colleagues, peers, and even competitors; have affected positive changes in their own organizations; as well as other factors, such as community and philanthropic activities.

This recognition joins dozens of other JBK awards and honors, which in the last year have included a spot on the 2012 Inc.500|5000 list of America's fastest-growing private companies, recognition as an NJBIZ Business of the Year, and the CEO in Action Leadership Award from Profiles in Diversity Journal, among other recognitions. JBK also has been named one of Working Mother magazine's Best Women-Owned Companies and has earned membership in the U.N. Global Compact for its corporate social responsibility platform. Kampf previously appeared on the PharmaVOICE 100 list in 2009.
